What Can the School Museum of Naval Honour Tell you about?

1 Read the interview and say what the school museum of Naval Honour can tell about.

Interviewer: When was the museum founded?

Guide: It was founded in April 2011.

Interviewer: Who collected the materials for the museum?

Guide: The exhibits were collected by the students' parents and school friends, sea writers and seamen.

Interviewer: What does the museum tell about?

Guide: The museum covers the history of the Russian Navy from its beginning up to the present day. There are a lot of exhibits that can tell about the foundation of the Russian Navy, the construction of the fleet, the seamen – heroes of different periods in the history of Russia.

2 Complete the sentences with the following words: was founded, seamen, exhibit, cover the history

1. There are a lot of _____ in our museum.
2. St. Petersburg _____ by Peter the Great.
3. A lot of _____ fought heroically in the seas and oceans during the Great Patriotic War.
4. The exhibits _____ of the foundation of the Russian Navy.

These words are used in the text:

- found – основывать
- exhibit – экспонат

Mind the Grammar: Passive Voice

was founded - был основан

is connected – связан

was devoted – был посвящен

was established – был учрежден

is formed – образован

3 Read the text and say in what way the name of Victor Mikhailovich Khramtsov is connected with the school museum:

The Commander-in-Chief of the 4th Pacific Ocean fleet in the 1980's vice-admiral Victor Mikhailovich Khramtsov was the school friend who helped to found the museum for the schoolchildren.

He was born in 1934. In 1949 he finished seven classes and entered Sverdlovsk Mining technical school. In 1954 he joined the army; all his life was devoted to the service of our country. His widow, Galina Vasilievna Khramtsova, remembers: "The most important for him was his duty to our Motherland, he was a real patriot".

4 Read the interview with Eugene, the school museum guide and say what the most important in the work of a guide is:

Be a Guide in the School Museum!

Interviewer: When did you become a guide?

How was it?

Eugene: I became a guide in our school museum of Naval Honour four years ago. I remember how we, the 6th-formers, came to the museum and chose one theme each for our research work. I chose the theme "The actions of the Russian Navy during the Great Patriotic War. The Heroes of the Soviet Union". I read much, met the relatives of the heroes and worked out the materials for excursions. Every year my knowledge deepened.

Interviewer: Whom did you conduct excursions for?

Eugene: First of all, for my classmates and schoolchildren of other classes, of course. The excursions were in English, because we did all this work at our English lessons. The most interesting were the excursions for foreign guests and the General Consul of Great Britain Keith Allan.

Interviewer: What is the most important for you in your work of a guide?

Eugene: I think the most important is to know the subject of your excursion very well. You should be ready to answer any questions of the guests. What is more, you should speak emotionally enough to impress your listeners so that they will feel the importance of what happened many years ago.

The Heroes of the School Museum of the Naval Honour

5 Read the text and say what was the culminating point in the life of the Hero of the Soviet Union M.A.Sokolov:

Our fellow citizen

Among the heroes participating in the military naval operations during the Great Patriotic War was our fellow citizen, Mikhail Andrianovich Sokolov.

He was the commander of the armored boat No. 132 of the Azov military flotilla.

In November, 1943 he fought on the Kerch Peninsula which became the starting point of the liberation of the Crimea. During three days of forcing the Kerch Peninsula the armored boat 132 whose commander was Lieutenant Sokolov brought to the base 373 seamen, 4 guns, 108 boxes with ammunition and water. Those were the culminating days in his life.

For the shown valor and courage he was given the title of the Hero of the Soviet Union. Lieutenant Sokolov was the participant of the Victory Parade on June 24, 1945 on the Red Square.

6 Read the story about an exhibit of the school museum and say why it was special for the guide Eugene:

The Story of a Mine

M.A. Sokolov gave a very unusual exhibit to our school museum of Naval Honour. It is a model of an anchor sea mine. At the stands of the museum one can see a lot of materials devoted to the time of the Great Patriotic War. There are a lot of war-time photographs, maps, newspapers, magazines, ship-models, personal belongings of the veterans in the museum. Among the exhibits this mine is different from the other ones.

What are the characteristics of this mine?
-This type of mines was constructed in 1912.
-This mine has a positive capability of floating.
-It can be kept on a set level of depth under the water.
-It is provided with the rope connecting the mine-body with the anchor lying on the seabed.
-The mine was widely used in the war-time for explosions and destroying ships and as a result – killing people.

Every time I conduct an excursion for any museum guests – be they highly honorable guests or just my schoolmates, the children from other classes – my heart sinks.

Every time I shudder with horror which was concentrated in that big piece of metal. How many hearts stopped beating, how many lives broke suddenly off when the ships came across the mines! What great danger was it for our seamen!

Why did the Hero of the Soviet Union Michail Andrianovich Sokolov give this mine to our museum? I think he wanted us to remember always the heroic experience of his generation. Their lives that were broken off must not be forgotten.

Eugene

My Great-grandfather

My great-grandfather Arkady Markovich Soiref was born in 1917. When he was 22 he became an officer of the Navy in St. Petersburg (it was then called Leningrad).

In 1931 Japanese troops attacked Manchzhuria and there was a threat to the borders of the Soviet Union. In 1938 there was a Soviet-Japanese conflict near the lake Khasan. It is a small lake at the border of China and Korea. In 1939 there was a war conflict between the Soviet Union and Japan near the river Khalkhin-Gol.

He was awarded with the Orders of the Red Star and the Great Patriotic war and many medals. After the war with Japan my great-grandfather served in the military base of Port-Artur and in Vladivostok. ## OCTOBER

October, 30 – the Day of the Establishment of the Russian Navy

When was the Russian Navy established?

I Read the text and say what the Russian Navy comprises:

These words are used in the text:

- to establish – основывать
- ascribed to... - приписываемые
- ensign – знамя, флаг
- to comprise – включать
- Coastal Troops – береговые войска
- naval infantry – морская пехота
- Coastal Missile and Artillery Troops – береговые ракетно-артиллерийские войска

The ancient Rus was only a continental state and the sea was open to the attacks of foreign invaders. Peter the Great completely changed the history.

The Russian Navy was established by Peter the Great (Peter I) in October 1696. Ascribed to Peter I is the statement: "A ruler that has but an army has one hand, but he who has a navy has both." The symbols of the Russian Navy, the St. Andrew's flag and ensign and most of its traditions were established personally by Peter I.

Nowadays the Russian Navy comprises the Northern Fleet, the Pacific Fleet, the Black Sea Fleet, the Baltic Fleet, the Caspian Flotilla, Naval Aviation, and the Coastal Troops (consisting of the naval infantry and the Coastal Missile and Artillery Troops).

2 Read the text and say what historical transformations were done in Russia by Peter the Great:

Peter the Great

Peter the Great or Peter Alexeyevich was born on 30 May in 1672, he ruled from 1682 until his death in 1725. Through a number of successful wars he expanded Russia into a much larger empire that became a major European power.

Peter the Great was a talented naval commander. It was only one side of his many-sided powerful and complex genius.

Love of fleet and ships awoke in him when he was young. Everything began with the old botik found by him in Izmailovo in 1688. It continued when Peter went to the Netherlands to study shipbuilding there. The Tsar was given the opportunity to gain practical experience in Amsterdam, the largest shipyard in the world at that time, for a period of four months. During his stay the Tsar engaged many skilled workers and seamen. After that he worked for three months in England. He travelled to the city of Manchester to learn the techniques of city-building he would later use to great effect at Saint Petersburg.

During that time he hired 900 specialists-shipbuilders to the service in Russia.

To improve his nation's position in the seas, Peter tried to gain more maritime outlets. The Tsar understood that only the sea outlet could overcome the backwardness of Russia compared with the western countries.

These words are used in the text:

- rule – править
- expand – расширять
- shipyard - верфь
- engage – нанимать
- hire – нанимать
- maritime outlet – морской выход
- overcome – преодолевать
- backwardness – отсталость
- determine – определять
- according to – в соответствии с
- peace treaty – мирный договор

In doing so it was necessary to fight and win the war with Sweden that began at the end of the 17th century and lasted for more than 20 years.

The foundation of St. Petersburg in 1703 had a symbolic character: Russia stood firmly at the banks of the Baltic Sea. Soon after that the Russian shipyards and the fleet appeared there. It was the fleet that won the victories in many battles and determined the way out of the Northern War. According to the Nistadt peace treaty Russia gained the coast of the Baltic sea from Viborg to Riga.

The victory in the Northern war and the establishment of the regular army and navy made Russia one of the most powerful states in Europe.

Botik of Peter the Great

The botik (small boat) was constructed, either in England or by Danes in Russia using an English design, in the 1640s. The boat originally was of Peter the Great's grandfather; there is an earlier theory that the boat was a gift from Queen Elizabeth to Ivan the Terrible in the 1580s.

The boat had a shallow draft and a single mast; it measured 7 metres by 2 metres. It also had four miniature cannons. The boat was designed with the ability to sail against the wind. Peter learned to sail using the boat on waters near Moscow.

Peter continued to use it in state ceremonies and ordered that the boat be sailed down the Neva River on 30 August every year. It was used in state ceremonies of later Russian monarchs including the wedding of Catherine the Great and Peter III of Russia, as well as the centennial celebration of St. Petersburg. ## It is Interesting to Know...

Saint Andrew’s cross gave the name to the flag. Andrew the Apostle also known as Saint Andrew, called in the Orthodox tradition the First-Called was a Christian Apostle and the brother of Saint Peter. Both he and his brother Peter were fishermen by trade. A tradition developed that Andrew had been crucified on a X-shaped cross, now commonly known as a "Saint Andrew's Cross". Andrew the Apostle visited Russia, that’s why he is honoured in our country.

NOVEMBER

1 Read the text and learn what important event happened in November 1704 in St. Petersburg:

The Admiralty

The original Admiralty was created by Peter the Great and began life as a fortified shipyard on 5 (16) November in 1704. Then it was surrounded by a moat and had four bastions at its corners. In 1711, a tower was added to the centre of the front facade and then a spire was built atop of that.

In those early days up to 10,000 tradesmen worked to build Peter his navy. Peter himself worked there as he was a proficient carpenter and ship designer. The first warship was lowered into the Neva in 1706.

The building of the Admiralty as we see it today was reconstructed from the wooden one during the reign of Alexander I in 1806 – 1823 by Adrian Zakharov. The designer Adrian Zakharov was then a professor at the St. Petersburg Academy of Arts.

The Admiralty is one, if not the most beautiful public monument of the Neoclassical period in St. Petersburg. Atop the gilded spire is the weather vane korablik ("the little ship") that is in the shape of the Great Peter's personal ship. The architecture and decorative sculptures have definite naval themes and glorify the greatness of Russia.

The main Headquarters of the Russian Navy is housed in the Admiralty today.

It is Interesting to Know...

Why is a ship referred to as "she?"

People tend to personify inanimate objects and attribute to them characteristics as if they are living things. Thus, things without life are often spoken of as "he" or "she". The sun, winter, and death are often spoken as "he".

Others are regarded as feminine, especially those things that are dear to us. The earth is the common mother of all life. Early seamen spoke of their ships as "she" for the close dependence they had on their ships for life.

DECEMBER

December, 1 – a Day of Military Honour: the Victory Day of the Russian squadron over the Turkish squadron at Cape Sinop

1 Read the text and say who led the Russian squadron in the battle of Sinop:

The Battle of Sinop

These words are used in the text:

- squadron - эскадра
- defeat – нанести поражение
- anchor – стоять на якоре
- harbor – бухта

The Battle of Sinop was a Russian naval victory over the Ottoman Empire during the Crimean War that took place on 30 November 1853 at a sea port Sinop.

A squadron of Russian warships led by Admiral Pavel Nakhimov struck and defeated a squadron of Ottoman ships anchored in the harbor.

2 Read the text and say what was the culminating point in the life of Pavel Nakhimov:

Admiral Pavel Nakhimov

Nakhimov entered the Naval Academy for the Nobility (Morskoy Dvoryanskiy Korpus) in Saint Petersburg in 1815. In February 1818 he passed examinations to become a midshipman and was immediately assigned to the second Fleet Crew (Flotskiy Ekipazh) of the Russian Imperial Navy's Baltic Fleet.

At the beginning of his naval career, Nakhimov sailed in the Baltic Sea and from the White Sea port of Arkhangelsk to Kronstadt naval base near St. Petersburg. In 1822 he was assigned to the frigate Kreiser ("Cruiser"); the vessel took part in a round-the-globe expedition commanded by well-known Russian explorer Mikhail Petrovich Lazarev, who had already undertaken several voyages.

During the three-year voyage, Nakhimov was promoted to the rank of lieutenant. In conclusion of this adventure, he received his first award, the Order of Saint Vladimir IV degree.

During the Crimean War Nakhimov became famous by defeating the Ottoman fleet at Sinop in 1853. His finest hour came during the siege of Sevastopol, where he and Admiral V. A. Kornilov organized the land defense of the city and its port, the home base of the Russian Black Sea Fleet. As the commander of the port and the military governor of the city, Nakhimov became in fact the head of the Sevastopol naval and land defense forces.

Long-lasting complete calm was a catastrophe for sailors. Because of the calm ships came late to the place of military operations. The sailors depended on the wind. For this reason the tradition of calling the wind appeared among the sailors. What they had to do was to scratch the mast of a ship – and wait for the wind!

May, 9 – Victory Day

1 Read the text and answer the questions:

Victory Day

The Great Patriotic War began on the 22 of June in 1941 and ended on the 9 of May in 1945. Every year on the 9 of May St. Petersburg is filled with flowers – they are given to the veterans of the Great Patriotic War. The flowers are also brought to the memorial cemeteries of St. Petersburg – Piskaryovskoye and Serafimovskoye – to those who perished during the war and mostly during the blockade of Leningrad.

The siege started on the 8 of September in 1941 and was only lifted on the 27 of January in 1944, 872 days after it began. It is regarded as one of the longest and most destructive sieges in history. It was possibly the costliest in terms of casualties. The people of Leningrad did not believe that the fascists could ever destroy their city. The people and Leningrad survived despite the famine, freezing cold and bombs that were thrown on the city.

The commemorations of Victory Day have become a source of national self-esteem. Victory Day in Russia has increasingly become a celebration in which all the people are united by the mutual memory. The parade on Victory Day is a symbol of the greatness and power of Russia.

People take part in the action of “Immortal Regiment”: they walk along the main street of St. Petersburg, Nevskiy prospect, carrying the photographs of their relatives – the veterans of the Great Patriotic War who are not alive.

2. What does the Parade on Victory Day symbolize?

Игра «Мемори» Морская

Игра «мемори» – это настольная игра, состоящая из парных картинок, где основной целью игры является «открытие» как можно большего числа парных карточек, за что игру «мемори» еще называют игра «парочки». Игра ведется двумя одинаковыми колодами карточек, на лицевой стороне которых изображены картинки. Играют обычно 2 - 6 участников, в зависимости от количества карточек. Свое название настольная игра «мемори» получила от англ. memory (память) и полностью оправдывает свое название.

Правила игры «мемори» крайне просты.

Все карточки перед началом игры перемешиваются и раскладываются рядами лицевой стороной (картинкой) вниз. (Для малышей количество карточек уменьшается в соответствии с возрастными возможностями, можно начать с 4 и далее постепенно увеличивать их количество.) Игроки по очереди открывают (переворачивают) по 2 карточки. Если открыты одинаковые карточки, то игрок забирает их себе и открывает следующую пару карточек. Если карточки не совпадают - игрок кладёт их на прежнее место лицевой стороной вниз и право хода переходит к следующему участнику. Когда непарные карточки возвращаются на место, все играющие стараются запомнить, где какая картинка лежит.

Побеждает игрок, набравший наибольшее количество карточек.

КТО ПЕРВЫЙ?

Ведущий показывает играющим карточки по одной и спрашивает: «Кто это?» или «Что это?».

Тот, кто первым правильно назовет, что или кто на ней изображен, получает карточку себе.

Игра продолжается до тех пор, пока карточки не закончатся. Выигрывает тот, кто соберет больше карточек.

* Вопросы по карточкам могут быть самыми разными, например «Какого цвета изображенный предмет?», «Какой формы?», «На картинке изображен одушевленный или неодушевленный предмет?» и т.д.

В более сложном варианте этой игры можно использовать английские названия изображенных на карточке предметов.

КТО БЫСТРЕЕ? Один комплект карточек ведущий раздает поровну играющим, раскладывают их перед собой изображением вверх. А остальные (парные для первого комплекта) ведущий кладет перед собой изображением вниз. Затем берет карточки по одной и называет, что на них изображено. Например, «Звездочка». Игрок, у которого есть карточка с такой картинкой, говорит: «Мне нужна звездочка», берет карточку и кладет рядом со своей. Выигрывает тот, кто быстрее подберет для всех своих карточек пары.

ЛОТО ПО ПАМЯТИ.

Один комплект карточек поровну раздают всем участникам. Остальные (парные для первого комплекта) карточки раскладывают на середине стола картинками вверх. В течение какого-то промежутка времени игроки запоминают их расположение. Затем карточки в центре столе переворачиваются картинкой вниз. Игроки очереди открывают по одной карточке. Если это их картинка, то забирают ее себе, если нет, кладут обратно рисунком вниз. Выигрывает игрок, первым собравший для своих карточек пары.

НАЙДИ ПРОПАЖУ.

5-6 карточек раскладывают на столе рисунком вверх. Запомнив все картинки, игроки закрывают глаза, а ведущий убирает одну карточку. Тот из игроков, кто первым вспомнит, что именно пропало, забирает карточку себе. Ведущий добавляет 2 новые, и 1 убирает. Игроки запоминают новый комплект карточек. Задание повторяется. Выигрывает тот, кто соберет большее количество карточек.

ИДЕМ В ГОСТИ.

Эта игра предназначена для развития навыков ориентирования на плоскости.

Ведущий раскладывает 24 карточки рядами по 5 штук картинками вверх, а в центре оставляет пустое место. Отсюда игроки начинают движение. Ведущий задаёт первому игроку маршрут движения, по которому надо пройти, например: «Одна карточка вверх, две – вправо. К кому или к чему мы пришли?». Ребенок отвечает. Теперь меняемся ролями.

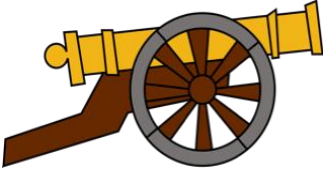

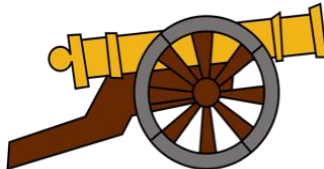

Данная игра развивает зрительную память, развивает усидчивость, внимательность, образное и пространственное мышление.

Комплект карточек прилагается.

Описание игры «Морской Доббль»

«Морской Доббль» - быстрая и весёлая игра, средняя продолжительность игры: 15 минут. Состав игроков варьируется от 2-10 человек. Игра состоит из карточек на морскую тематику. Каждый игрок получает карточку с символами и берет из колоды карточку также с морскими символами, цель - найти одинаковый символ и назвать его по-английски. Именно на поиске этого совпадения и построена настольная игра "Доббль". Правила предлагают 5 вариантов мини-игр в "Доббль", в соответствии с которыми игрокам требуется собрать больше карт или, наоборот, быстрее всех от них избавиться, указав на одинаковые рисунки.

Если вам нравится устраивать турниры, то вы можете воспользоваться системой подсчета очков. Эта игра развивает внимательность, скорость реакции, а также хороший способ закрепить лексику по морской теме в игровой форме.
